There are materials for raising it to the status of a second-grade High school. The towns of Erode and Kanir were placed in Class B of mofussil towns as regards fees. The Pollachi Middle school is still badly attended, and the Coimbatore Local Board have recently agreed to take it over. The middle department of the Coimbatore College improved in attendance, though a private High school was opened in the town by certain graduates towards the close of the year. The strength of the middle department of the Ootacamund Lawrence Asylum rose from 83 to 143, and in the late Middle School Examination three appeared and all passed. The middle departments attached to Government High schools in Malabar have improved in strength, Tellicherry excepted, and the Middle School results were satisfactory, except in the Calicut Middle school,...
