Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Literacy Is Power is for everyone, beginners and experienced teachers, who want to take action against illiteracy. Literacy Is Power offers everything you need to start your own teen and adult literacy program or volunteer as a literacy instructor. If you can read this sentence you can become a literacy leader. 50 activities in reading, writing, health, numeracy, and digital literacy Seven Steps To A Successful Literacy Session Conduct literacy triage and create a learner-centered curriculum Fundraising leads and how to write grant proposals A portion of the proceeds will be donated to fighting illiteracy and poverty Literacy Is Power is an essential tool for everyone wanting to halt the devastation impacting families and children and parents in America. Reading is as important and vital as shelter and food and heat-it s a must read. -Jimmy Santiago Baca, author of A Glass of Water Literacy is Power is an important book about a crucial issue for our democracy: how to eliminate the problem of illiteracy that affects well over a quarter of the American population and is a major contributor to its high poverty rate. This book offers a thoughtful, practical guide to those of us who are teaching or want to teach literacy, blending sound teaching methods and useful anecdotes with an admirable touch of passion. It is not only an excellent read; it is a must read. - Pablo Eisenberg, author of Challenges for Nonprofits and Philanthropy: The Courage to Change Slattery s book is a fascinating read, full of stories and insights. Addressing our literacy culture, it sends a powerful message to society. And after reading, you will truly understand why education is about...
