Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Religion Through the Ages: An Anthology In 1905, eight years after graduation, the editor of this volume gave the Alumni Address at the Divinity School of Yale University. Hermon F. Bell was a listener as a member of the Senior Class. The subject of this pronouncement was The Content of Revelation. Reflecting that period of transition, it took a broad sweep beyond earlier views of Biblical inspiration and the doctrine of the Incarnation. The Yale spirit was conducive to inquiry and freedom of thought and while the address elicited considerable discussion, its thesis was not vigorously challenged. During the following period there was restlessness at Yale and some other schools of theology. The ministry was losing ground in the colleges and some of the theological institutions became disturbed by it. The writer was a member of an Alumni Advisory Committee of the Yale faculty and a moderately successful effort was made, by visiting colleges, to bring students to the ministry and to Yale. Other seminaries pursued similar measures. Two currents were related to each other: the increase of a marked change in theology and the decreasing interest in institutional religion in the colleges. Following his address at Yale in 1905, the writer was consulted by several students who were in doubt about following the ministry. In most cases the problem was to be traced back to the college. Among these instances was that of the student who has expressed his religious faith in the anthology which is the heart of this volume. In January, 1907, Hermon Bell appeared at the Congregational parsonage in South Norwalk, to interview the speaker who had addressed his class in...
