And Gideon said unto Him, O, my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? And where be all His miracles which our fathers told us of? The Lord led Israel out of Egypt. He brake their bonds and brought them freedom. A land fair and fertile He gave them to dwell in, and fed them with the fatness of the earth. They sat in peace, and none dared to disturb them, for they were His care. For this care He asked fear. The least they could rightly have rendered to the Lord for all His mercies would have been constant service, a true love and thankful devotion. But they did not obey His voice, neither serve Him with a true heart fervently. Their impiety made them weak. It estranged God, and that left them without protection. Then trouble came. Terrible were the disasters that fell upon them. And no help came until, as we do to-day, they...
