Culture Trumps Everything: The Unexpected Truth about the Ways Environment Changes Biology, Psychology, and Behavior (Paperback)

By Gustavo R Grodnitzky

Mountainfrog Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What determines our behaviors as human beings at the individual and organizational level? Although it often feels as though either our biology or our personality (or both) guides our decisions about issues large and small, increasing evidence suggests that culture trumps everything. What happens when people who are normally loud and boisterous walk into a church or a library? They lower their voices. Did they suddenly change their biology or their personalities? Of course not. They simply responded appropriately to cultural expectations of behavior. It seems obvious in this case, but the truth is that culture has a similar impact on virtually everything that every one of us does - every day - without even realizing it. The many cultures that each of us simultaneously belong to have a disproportionate impact on the ways we think, feel and behave. As a result, leaders of organizations both large and small have the opportunity to shape their cultures in ways that foster positive outcomes for all stakeholders - from employees, to senior leaders, to shareholders, to the broader community. This book investigates...

Reviews

This pdf may be really worth a read, and superior to other. It generally does not price too much. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
