But light may follow new blows. Researches in Exegesis may still be progressive. The possibility encourages the experiment. We now venture upon a portion of the writings of St. Peter. St. Peter, at the end of his Second Epistle, writes these memorable and instructive words: Account that the long suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; as also in all his Epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction. - 2 Peter 3. 15, 16. The original Greek of this remarkable passage demands a translation, which is different in several respects...
