Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Mr. Phelps Appeal to the People of Vermont, in Vindication of Himself: Against the Charges Made Against Him Upon the Occasion of His Re-Election to the Senate of the United States, in Relation to His Course as a Senator As a public servant invested by you with a highly important and responsible public trust, I entertain a high sense of my accountability to you for the manner in which that trust is discharged; and I feel bound on all proper occasions to vindicate my public course whenever and wherever it may be questioned. It is now nearly fourteen years that I have been honored by your confidence, seven of which were spent in the responsible station of a Judge of your highest judicial tribunal, and more than six in the highest office in your gift, that of your representative in the Senate of the United States. Nor is this all. By my recent re-election to that post you have expressed your continued confidence in me, and conferred upon me for six years to come the...
