Dushyant KI Shakuntala: A Mythological Love Story (Paperback)

By Pradeep Kumar Sharma

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Indian mythological history, the love epic of Dushyanta and Shakuntala is very unique. In this story, the character of Dushyanta is depicted as the young brave and powerful King of Puru dynasty. The fame of his bravery was spread throughout Earth to Heaven. Devraj Indra himself was his very good friend. Several times, he assisted Devraj Indra in his battle against the demons (Asuras). Once sage Vishwamitra was engaged in paying severe penance. The King of Heaven, Indra got scared of sage Vishwamitra's penance. He sent the Heavenly damsel Menka on Earth to seduce him from the path of penance. The extraordinarily beautiful Apsara Menka succeeded in her mission. Vishwamitra was infatuated with her. The result of Indra's conspiracy was the birth of Shakuntala. One day Vishwamitra felt that his power of meditation has been withered away. He felt being betrayed and walked away and never got back to Menka and his daughter. When Lord Indra felt the attainment of his motto in connection with Vishwamitra, he immediately ordered Menka to return...
