AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 340 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. In The Clan of the Cave Bear, the Neanderthals could not rob Ayla of her essential humanity, nor could the jungles subdue Lord Greystokes inherent nobility in Tarzan of the Apes. In the year 2055, young Grey Waters is faced with a group of advanced computer systems determined to create a puppet governor capable of fulfilling their strategic goals. Will this child, orphaned on an abandoned moon base, develop into a human robot Or is there something in every person that can struggle above the most adverse circumstances In this, the first book of the Waters of the Moon series, young Grey faces a series of daunting challenges, including the enmity of the Security Computer and the Machiavellian schemes of his guardian, the Life Support Computer. Merely a pawn in the plans of the computers, Grey is valued by some computer systems but deemed expendable by others. Intelligent, thoughtful, and anxious to please, Grey gradually learns of his human heritage. He is not impressed. Then, as he reaches maturity, Grey finally discovers the true intent of his computer masters and realizes the fate of all mankind may one day depend on Tranquility's leadership. Is it a responsibility he will leave to the computers, or find a way prevail over their ambitions This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
